PRESS RELEASE

ASHANTI NORTH REGIONAL POLICE COMMAND ASSURES PUBLIC OF HIGHWAY SECURITY

1. The Ashanti North Regional Police Command is assuring the general public of heightened security measures along highways within the region following a recent robbery incident.
2. The Command has also launched a manhunt to arrest the robbers who attacked a bus on Wednesday, 23rd April 2025, in the Offinso South Municipality, leading to the tragic death of a 23-year-old bus conductor.
3. In addition, the Command has deployed increased highway patrols, established mobile checkpoints, and activated rapid response teams to ensure swift intervention during emergencies.
4. Also, the Command is working closely with local communities and transport unions to strengthen intelligence gathering and encourage the prompt reporting of suspicious activity.
5. The Regional Police Command urges the public to remain calm and supportive as investigations continue and additional security operations are rolled out.
6. For emergencies or to report suspicious activity, please contact the Police via 191 / 18555(MTN/TELECEL NUMBERS) / 112.
